Georgiou is committed to ensuring a working environment free from bullying, harassment, aggression and victimisation.

Georgiou will not tolerate:

Workplace Bullying is when a person or a group of people repeatedly behave unreasonably towards a worker or a group of workers at work, examples include aggressive or intimidating conduct, belittling or humiliating comments and teasing, practical jokes.

Workplace Harassment is any unwelcome behaviour associated with unlawful discrimination which offends, intimidates, degrades or humiliates, irrespective of intent. Unlawful harassment can be direct or indirect on the grounds of sex, marital status or pregnancy, family responsibility or family status, sexual orientation, race, religious or political conviction, impairment, age or, in certain cases gender history. Unlawful harassment can be of a verbal, non-verbal or physical nature.

Workplace Aggression is an action or incident which may physically or psychologically harm another person. Aggressive behaviour is present in situations where workers and other people are threatened, verbally abused, attacked or physically assaulted at work.

Workplace Victimisation is where a person subjects, or threatens to subject, another person to disadvantage on the grounds that the person victimised has made, or proposes to make, a complaint or take other action under Equal Opportunity legislation.

In order to achieve this commitment Georgiou will:

- educate employees about acceptable behaviour at work;
- promptly, effectively and confidentially address complaints;
- actively encourage appropriate behaviour by those in positions of authority, that is, supervisors and managers; and
- provide appropriate and effective processes, structures and resources to prevent and address issues of harassment, bullying, victimisation and aggression.

It is the responsibility of all employees to ensure they do not bully, harass, victimise or behave aggressively towards another employee or other people in the workplace. Employees must be aware that non-compliance with the policy will result in disciplinary action, which may include dismissal, as well as being subject to possible action under Federal or State equal opportunity laws.

Employees, who believe they are being subjected to workplace bullying, harassment, aggression or victimisation, should contact their Line Manager or Human Resources.
